RECEIPTS.

—“Park Place,” that sounds well. —Weather probabilities are clear and warmer.

—There was a smash-up at the Corn Exchange square this afternoon.

—Almanac makers claim that to-day is the time to sow cabbage seed and to harvest Easter bonnets.

—Two or three youngsters around town have the measles. Won't somebody please get up a “scare”?

—A gold coin had been found by Marshal Hogan. The marshal is now looking for the rest of the coin.

—Officer McGinley is now a citizen of the United States. The naturalization papers were issued by Judge Bennett.

—All parties interested in the slumber robe at Gelbraith's store, please call at that place on Saturday, April 9, at five o'clock p. m.

—A marriage of two Rock Prairie young people, both of whom have scores of friends in Janesville, will be announced soon.

—There will be another Masonic party next Wednesday evening. It will be similar to the very successful one given a short time ago.

—Judge Sale is in Madison trying a case for Judge Carpenter. The case concerns the probating of a will to which Judge Carpenter is the only witness living.

—Business men that clean the street in front of their stores are sadly in the minority. In consequence Main and Milwaukee streets look as though they were newly plowed.

—Last evening, at a regular monthly meeting of Water Works Engine Co. No. 2, Mr. John W. Tipney was elected foreman, vice J. F. Hutchinson promoted to second assistant engineer.

—When the street cars can run half a mile farther toward the cemetery a change will be made in the running time of the road. The halfway switch will be at the depot instead of at Main street.

—Superintendent Atwood is kept busy getting horses for work on the extension, Washington street near the Lovejoy culvert looks as though some one was building another Evansville “cut off.”

—Mr. E. J. Kent has the contract for painting the names of streets on the lamp posts, etc. About 500 street names will be put up on the lamps and other conspicuous places at street corners or intersections.

—Rehearsals for the amateur theatricals of next Tuesday will be held at the opera house on Saturday and Monday evening. That of Monday will be in full dress. The seats for Tuesday night are going very rapidly. By to-morrow evening all of the desirable ones will be taken.

—There is talk among C. & N. W. men of the morning train from here to Madison being discontinued. It will probably be kept on, however, until the limited is started, but after that, the adjournment of the legislature will make it of less consequence.

—E. J. Walton, the New York tea man, smiled upon his Janesville acquaintances again this morning, and then visited Justice Friedman's court where a suit has been commenced against him by Charles Shepherd. The suit is for unpaid wages.

—Charles Wron, was arrested by Marshal Hogan this morning for drunkenness. He is the same man that started for Boston some time ago and fell into the hands of Chicago bunco-steerers. When the police found him after that experience his money was all gone and he claimed to have no remembrance of where he lived or what his name was.

—While visiting her son on Oak Hill avenue last evening, Mrs. Harvey H. Handy, of the first ward, was stricken with paralysis. She died within a very short time. The funeral will be held Sunday morning, from the residence of her son, and the burial will be at Magnolia. Mrs. Handy is an old resident in the county, having grown up here from childhood. Mrs. James Harris and Mrs. S. C. Cobb are her sisters.

—A west side young lady, driving down Jackson street the other day, was stopped by a friend. “You little goose,” he exclaimed the fair one on the sidewalk, “something is the matter with your horse. Oh, yes, he's unhooked.” And the authority on horse-flesh stood and laughed—that is, she laughed until she heard one youngster just behind her say to another “Jimmy, did you get into the woman that thinks a horse is unhooked, while she means his crupper is off.” Then she turned red and started down town, while the one in the buggy looked mad enough to bite a shingle nail.

—Capt. Alex. Baeholz, of the steamer Enterprise, wishes to announce that he has returned from Madison, where he has spent most of the winter, and will proceed to thoroughly overhaul his boat and put it in good shape for the summer campaign. Capt. Baeholz appreciates the generous treatment extended to him by the public in the past and will endeavor to merit a continuance of public favor. The picnic grounds at Pope's Springs have been leased by private parties but Capt. Baeholz expects to leave his dace boat and other improvements for the use of the public and will continue to run his boat as heretofore. He will make a trip every morning and evening during the summer to accommodate the campers and all others who desire to ride. He does not anticipate that the private lease of the grounds will interfere with public picnics and parties, but in case of any dissatisfaction he will lease other grounds for the public accommodation. The steamer will be provided with life preservers and thoroughly equipped for business.

THE CITY GOVERNMENT.

Special Meeting of the Common Council Last Evening.

The Municipal Legislators Closing up the Year's Business.

Matters Considered Last Evening.

A special meeting of the common council was held at the city hall last evening. President Croft presided, and all the aldermen were present except Ald. C. C. McLean and Rooney.

The clerk stated that summons and complaints had been served in the cases of Mary Canary, Levi F. Horn and Sarah A. Plummer, all for damages consequent upon overflow. The matter was referred to the judiciary committee and city attorney.

The March report and statement of the judge of the municipal court was referred to the judiciary committee, found correct and placed on file.

The report of the board of education for February (showing expenditures for the month of $1,854.00) and for the month of March (showing expenditures for the month of $2,913.01) was read, referred to committee on schools, found correct, placed on file and ordered published.

The petition of Matthews & Ryan for the transfer of the license held by Zenow Blank to them was read, referred to the license committee, and subsequently the transfer was ordered.

The yearly report of the board of water commissioners was read and placed on file.

A petition of resident property owners surrounding the court house park, asking the council to change the names of that portion of Court, East and South First streets, surrounding the park, to “Park Place.” Referred to highway, street and bridge committee.

A petition for the removal of the scales and hay-market from the corn exchange, and also a remonstrance, were read and referred to the highway, street and bridge committee.

A petition of the residents of the third ward, protesting against the location of the post house in that ward, was referred to the highway, street and bridge committee.

A petition asking the council to prohibit the removal of timbers or planks from the chute in the dam during high water, in order to prevent an overflow below. Referred to the judiciary committee.

A communication was read from the fire department, transmitting the nominations of Henry Blank for chief engineer, and Charles Horn, and J. F. Hutchinson, as first and second assistant engineers. The same was referred to committee on fire department.

The clerk read a number of bills against the several funds, which were referred to the appropriate committee.

The election returns were referred to the judiciary committee and Ald. J. B. McLean.

[The council ordered a fifteen minute recess to allow the committee time to examine the returns.]

Ald. Fathers, of the finance committee, reported in favor of allowing bills against the various funds as follows:

General fund.....$ 77.10
First ward fund.....47.72
Second ward fund.....52.18

Bridge fund.....81.75
Total.....$ 686.24

The report was concurred in.

The treasurer's report for the month of March was found correct and placed on file.

Ald. J. B. McLean, of the fire department committee, reported in favor of the appointment of Henry Blank as chief of the fire department, and J. F. Hutchinson as second assistant engineer. The appointments were made. Ald. McLean stated that there was a question about the appointment of Mr. Horn as that gentleman had been elected an alderman, and according to the charter could not hold both offices. Action was deferred until the next meeting.

The contract for placing the names of streets at the intersections of all streets, was on motion of Ald. J. B. McLean, awarded to E. J. Kent, the price being $30 for 500 signs.

The judiciary committee reported the result of Tuesday's election, and on motion of Ald. Judd, the persons receiving a plurality of votes were declared elected. The result is the same as published in the Gazette on Wednesday.

The vote on the question of water works was ordered placed on the journal.

Ald. Fathers, that the clerk draw orders for the payment of inspectors and clerks of the late election. Adopted.

Ald. Carpenter, an order for the payment of the quarter salary of the municipal judge. Adopted.

The council adjourned.
